National Chemistry Week Illustrated Poem Contest

ACS Local Sections are encouraged to participate in the National Chemistry Week (NCW) illustrated poem contest by inviting area Kindergarten – 12th grade students to compete.

Contest Rules

- Poems must conform to a particular style. No poem may be longer than 40 words.
- The topic of the poem and the illustration must be related to the NCW theme, “Chemistry – Our Health, Our Future!”
- All entries must be original works without aid from others.
- Each poem must be submitted and illustrated on an unlined sheet of paper (of any type) not larger than 11” x 14”. The illustration must be created by hand using crayons, watercolors, other types of paint, colored pencils or markers. The text of the poem should be easy to read and may be printed with a computer, before the hand-drawn illustration is added, or the poem may be written on lined paper which is cut out and pasted onto the unlined paper with the illustration.
- Only one entry per student will be accepted.
- All entries must include an entry form. In addition, please write the student’s full name on the back of the poster.
- All illustrated poems and/or digital representations of the poems become the property of the American Chemical Society.
- Acceptance of prizes constitutes consent to use winners’ names, likenesses and entries for editorial, advertising and publicity purposes.

Coordinator Information

- ACS NCW Coordinators must develop the guidelines and deadlines for their local contest.
- NCW Coordinators must determine how many entries per school will be accepted into the local contest.
- ACS NCW coordinators will identify and submit a maximum of one winning entry in each of the four (4) grade categories to the national contest (entries from areas not covered by any ACS Local Section territory will be handled on a case-by-case basis).
- When coordinators submit entries to the national contest, the following information must also be included with each entry: local section, coordinator name and email address.
- National contest entries must be received by the ACS in Washington, DC by Friday, October 28, 2011. National winners will be announced on or before November 7, 2011.
- ACS is not responsible for lost, damaged, or delayed postal shipments and electronic submission is encouraged.

Entries will be judged based upon:

- Relevance to and incorporation of the theme
- Word choice and imagery
- Colorful artwork
- Adherence to poem style
- Originality and creativity
- Overall presentation
